

THE MORNING APPEAL.

The Official Paper of Ormsby County
SATURDAY MAY 11

ALL SORTS.

This year's California crops promises to be very large.

The Tahoe landlord is getting ready for the Summer butterflies.

The Grossman case was called yesterday in the Justice Court and continued today.

Wealthy men who owe subscriptions to a paper are the hardest of all to collect from.

There was a good audience and very entertaining performance at the Opera House last evening.

Officer Patterson yesterday arrested a Chinaman on the charge of selling liquor to Indians. He is in the lock-up.

Attention is called to an advertisement for bids for supplies for the State Hospital for Mental Diseases in another column.

Corbett came so near making a match with Fitzsimmons that he has concluded to go to England and swap challenges with Jackson again.

Does anyone know the name of the man who packed bullion around this city in female attire, but whose heavy boots gave him away on the bridge?

The APPEAL is very sorry Mr. Sibley and General Warner do not find it convenient to hold one meeting in Nevada. But, as the General says, there are other places which need light more than Nevada.

The gold-bugs cannot get over their fight occasioned by the demand of the people for free silver. The thing for them to do is to examine the whole matter thoroughly and dispassionately and then come into the ark.

It is proposed to kill off the surplus horses and can the meat. There is no reason whatever why horse meat may not be as palatable as beef. It is said that people who have eaten it can scarcely tell the difference between horse flesh and beef.

The Rothschild's made ten million on Cleveland's bond deal. They are now cornering gold and have the U. S. Treasury in a hole. The only thing to break the gold corner is to call an extra session of Congress and remonetize silver, and we can't be too quick about it either.

California is having a flower festival and each little town has gone through the form of electing a Queen of the Fiesta. As a result scores of young girls will get their heads top heavy with the homage they receive and the little towns will not be big enough to hold them after the thing is over.

Lord Douglas who engaged himself to a waiter girl in Jack Hallahan's dive on Market street, now says he felt a little hazy at the time and attributes his sudden matrimonial impulse to the beer he drank. He has now sobered up and will proceed to hunt a woman with money like a true British Lord.

The Reno Journal gave the Columbus company a very good notice, and admitted that the troupe gave the best performance Reno has seen for years. Among other things it says:

The newsboy's chorus was immense and caught the house. Young Rountree's acting and dancing would have made a genuine street garmin green with envy.

The Saarman Murder.

Mrs. Saarmans funeral yesterday afternoon drew a large crowd and there was great excitement. After the funeral the crowd went to the jail and there was talk of lynching but no attempt was made. Extra guards were put on last night. The suspect gave his name as Williams and said he a nephew of Judge Williams of Placerville. He admits being at the house in the morning, but denies all knowledge of the murder. His shoes fit the tracks across the field.

For Sale.

A fresh thoroughbred Jersey cow, five years old. Gives 14 quarts per day. Enquire at this office.

Pasturage.

John Sweeney is now prepared to take a number of horses and dry cows to pasture at $1 per month.

When Baby was sick,
We gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child,
She cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss,
She clung to Castoria.
When she had Children,
She gave them Castoria.

THE EXAMINATION RESUMED

EVIDENCE WHICH CLEARS THE SILVER ADMINISTRATION.

Nearly all of the Witnesses on the Stand Again.

Yesterday the examination of J. T. Jones charged with a shortage in the Melted and Refiners Department of the Mint was resumed.

The principle testimony was evidence which showed that it was impossible for Melted and Refiner Harris to have made any bogus melts.

Warren Noteware, bookkeeper of the Mint, stated that the bogus melt was represented in the books as numbers 164, 134 and 74 and came into Harris' possession exactly as they were when their true character was discovered.

It had been insinuated by the defense that Harris had doctored the melt while Jones was below in February. It was shown by the books of the Mint that the weighing up began February 11th and that Jones left the Saturday night before. There was no melting done on Sunday or Monday and the weighing began on Monday. Hence it was impossible for Harris to have made any melts in the meantime.

Back was also re-examined. He said he treated at one time 371.30 ounces of gold, 989 fine, valued at $5,540. He did not know at the time that it was Mint bullion, but subsequently learned that it was.

Adams, Ellis, Harris and Mason were also on the stand for re-examination but nothing new was developed.

Paris Ellis testified that there was a shortage of 380 ounces of silver, when the old administration went out and he offered to make it up out of his own pocket, but defendant said no it would come out alright in the clean up. When there was a proposition to re-assay the bars Jones made no objection.

Harris also testified that at first he did not suspect Jones.

Mason testified that granulated Mint gold sometimes ran as low as 989 fine the fineness of the gold Henry offered in Reno.

Mason and Coffin had several tilts. The Government announced that it rested the case.

Flower Kleptomaniacs.

The Capitol Commissioners have been much annoyed of late by persons stealing flowers from the Capitol grounds. They don't mind when a lady reaches for a bunch of lilacs or plucks a rose, but when people make way with plants and bulbs by digging them or pulling them up, the case is different. Yesterday the walks on the East side of the Square were strewn with lilacs that had been merely plucked and thrown away in a spirit of pure wantonness.

Section 4813 of the compiled laws make it a misdemeanor to destroy plants and shrubbery in the Capitol grounds. The fine is all the way from one dollar up to five hundred and from one day to six months in jail.

The Commissioners authorize a reward of $20 for information leading to the conviction of any of these offenders. It is their sworn duty to enforce the law and they propose to do it.

Not Badly Injured.

Atty. Gen. Beatty returned from his trip to Grass Valley yesterday. He was looking very well and gained ten pounds on the trip. The fall he had in Grass Valley was not as bad as first reported. There is nothing to show for it but a small cut on the forehead, which is fast healing. He met Sibley and Warner in San Francisco and says Sibley is a man of great ability, culture and personal magnetism. He is making silver converts everywhere and talks to immense and enthusiastic audiences. In Denver Sibley talked to a crowd of people which the papers designated as "several acres of silver men."

A New Game.

A new game has made its appearance in Hawthorne, and is going to be the rage, says the Bulletin. It is called "Cheese," and is played as follows: Six young ladies stand in a row, and one of them bites a piece of limburger cheese, and the young men guess who bit it. The successful guesser kisses the other five girls, while the unsuccessful kiss the girl who bit the cheese. The game has reached Carson.

DIED.

In this city May 10, Daniel Lincoln, a native of Vermont aged 68 years. Funeral from the residence, Saturday May 11 at 2 p. m.

Populists and Free Silver Men.

Chicago, May 9.—The Populists in Indiana, acting under instructions from Chairman Taubeneck of the National Committee, are now maneuvering for a union with the free-silver men in both the old parties.

"We think we see the breaking up of the old political parties," he said. "The contest next year will be between the gold men on one side and the silver men on the other. The contest will be one in which the South and West will be arrayed against the East. The battleground will be in Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota. If the South and West stand together for free-silver they will win."

"Do Populists stand ready to unite with the Silver party?"

"We certainly do. If the party should win it would be a victory for the Populists. It is immaterial under which name we win. The free coinage of silver is the central doctrine of the Populists, and we are ready to make any sort of a union that can accomplish our purpose."

The Populist State Committee has ceased the work of organizing Populist clubs throughout the State. The leaders have suggested that free-coinage clubs be organized, and that members of both old parties be invited to become members of the clubs. The newspaper printed here as the organ of the party has undertaken to circulate silver literature among the farmers of the State.

Death of Daniel Lincoln.

Yesterday morning Daniel Lincoln, an old resident of Carson died of dropsy. He had been confined to the house with the ailment for nearly a year, and was unconscious most of the time for two days prior to his death. He was aged 68 years, a native of Vermont, and leaves a wife and married daughter, Mrs. Martin Brumsey. He was a highly esteemed citizen and left many friends in Carson. The funeral will take place from his late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
